

APPAREL TRAINING & DESIGN CENTRE

1st January 2013

ATDC opens 145th Peripatetic Centre at Adegodi, Karnataka

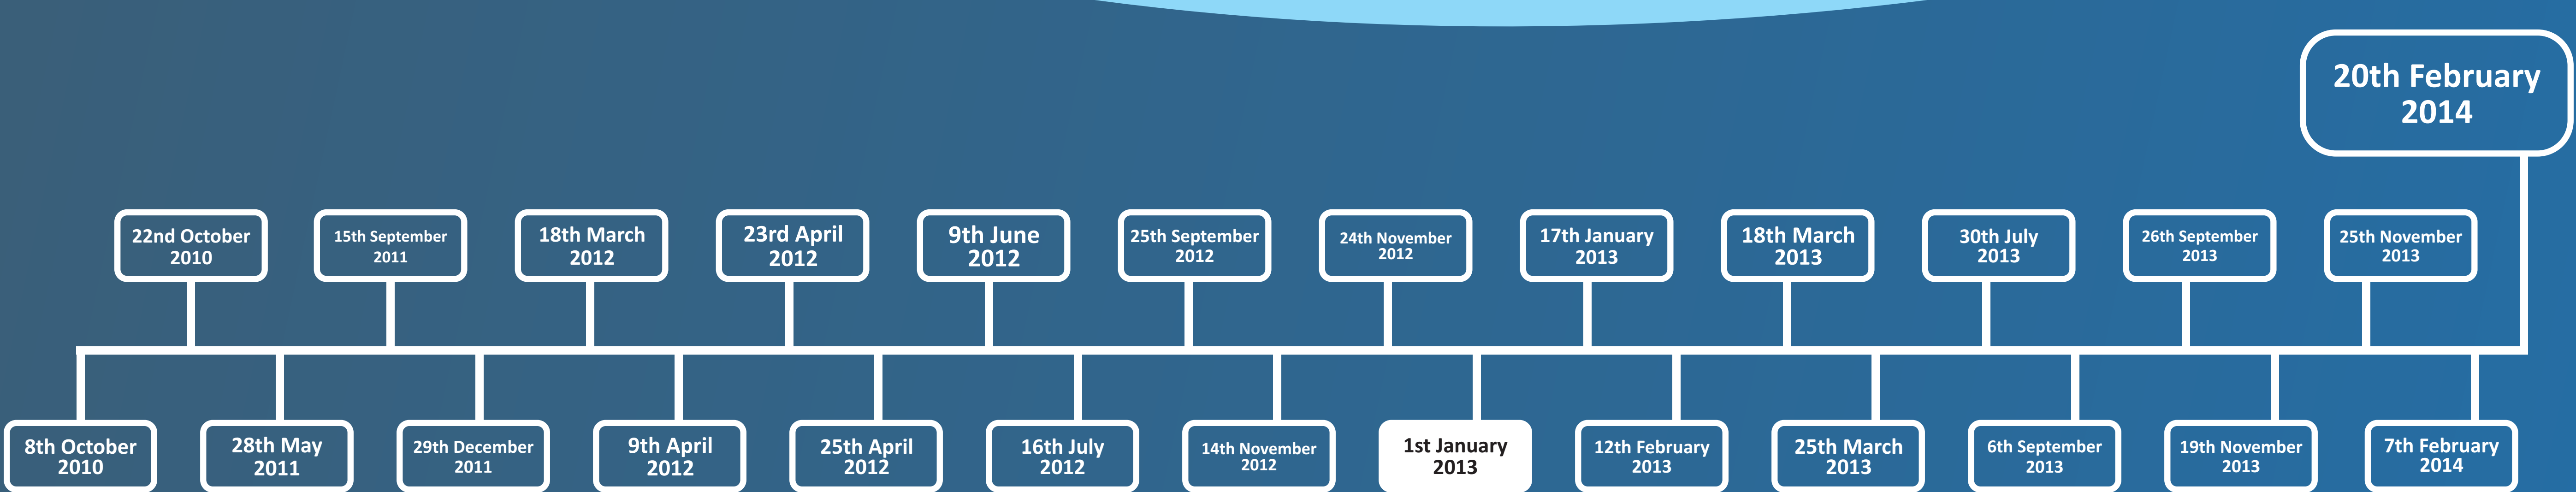

- ATDC opens training centre in Karnataka to bridge the huge demand and supply gap of skilled workforce in the state.
- ATDC aims to train people and open training centres through its Apparel Training and Design Centre in Karnataka .
- The current format of skill development and making skilled manpower available to the apparel industry has been quite successful in Karnataka.
- So far the ATDC has trained over 12,000 persons in different parts of the state including Tumkur, Kolar, Ramnagar and Hubli.

ATDC-Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike Collaborative Partnership

"Considering the huge demand and supply of skilled workforce in the Bengaluru Garment Cluster, ATDC would be expanding its foot prints in setting up of ATDC SMART Centres in and around Bangalore,"

AEPC Former Chairman, Dr. A. Sakthivel

Training in Vocational Skills

Health, Hygiene & Sanitation

Empowerment & Livelihoods

Community Development Impact