

APPAREL TRAINING & DESIGN CENTRE

17th January 2013

ATDC-JUKI Tech Innovation Centre set up to demonstrate State-of-Art Machines in Apparel Manufacturing

The Apparel Training & Design Centre (ATDC) in collaboration with JUKI India Pvt. Ltd., launched India's first 'Technology Innovation Research Centre' at the ATDC-Training of Trainers' Academy, Gurgaon to demonstrate leading edge technologies in apparel manufacturing and undertake applied research. Inaugurated on January 17, 2013 by Ms. Kiran Dhingra, IAS, Former Secretary (Textiles), MOT, GOI in the presence of Dr. A. Sakthivel, Chairman, AEPC, ATDC&IAM, Vice-Chairman, ATDC Sri Hari Kapoor, Dr. Darlie Koshy, DG & CEO-ATDC & IAM and the ATDC team and from JUKI Mr. Katsumi Nihei, Executive Operating Officer, Mr. Yamanaka, Managing Director, Mr. Motomaru, Director among many other dignitaries

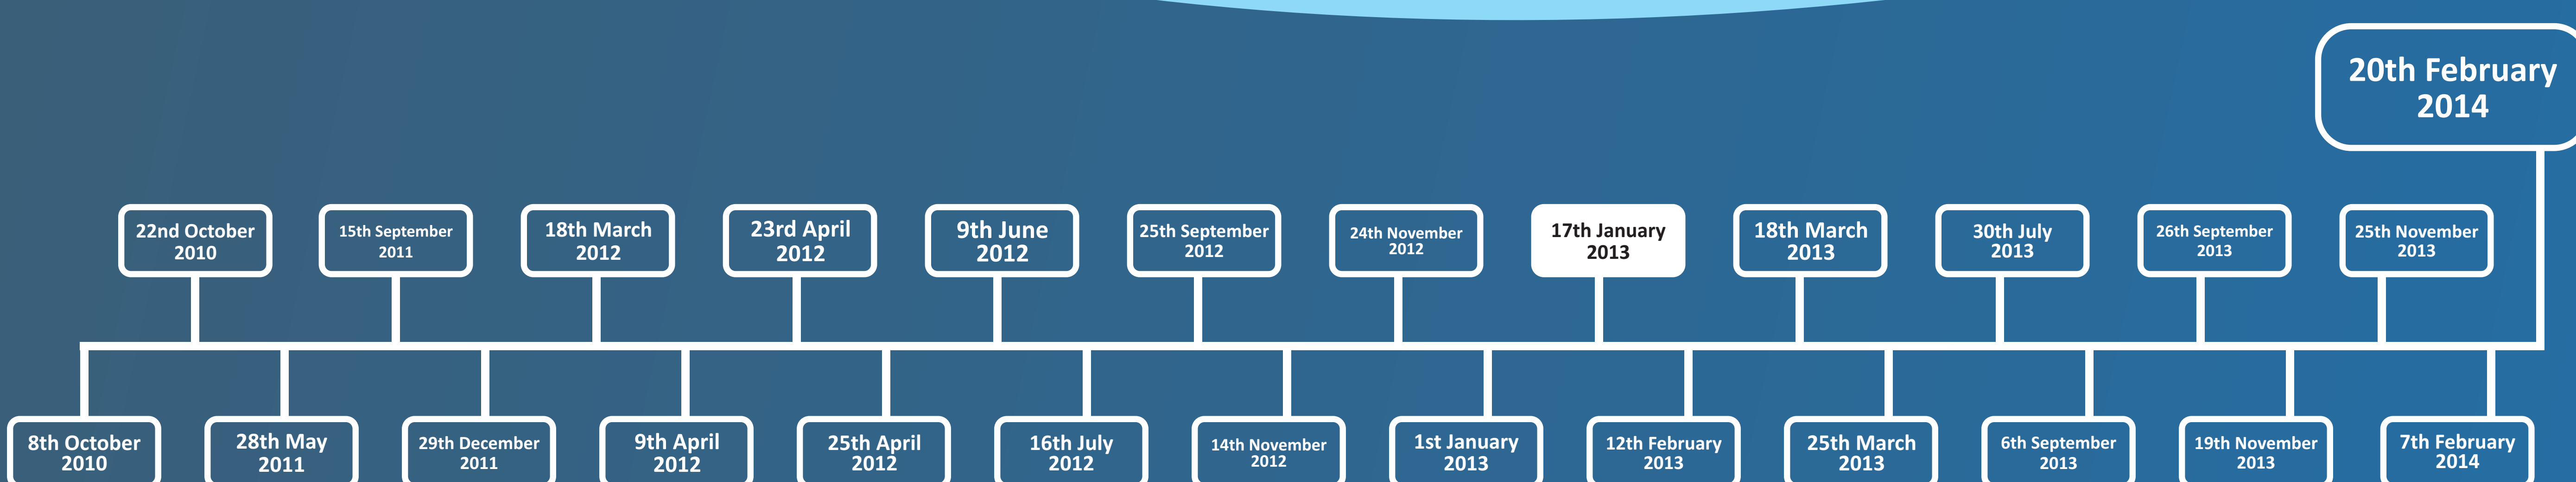

ATDC-JUKI Tech Innovation Centre for 'Technology Demonstration' & 'Applied Research'

It is a platform where industry and academia can focus on showcasing and demonstrating technology and carrying out applied 'Research,' a key word in SMART, with design and innovation.

Dr. Darlie O. Koshy, DG & CEO, ATDC & IAM

The ATDC-Juki Tech Innovation Centre will surely become very resourceful for the industry, offering the latest know-how of apparel industry.

Mr. Kenichi Motomaru, Director, Juki India

Training in Vocational Skills

Health, Hygiene & Sanitation

Empowerment & Livelihoods

Community Development Impact