

Quote from Dignitaries:

Sri HKL Magu

Chairman, AEPC & ATDC

“Apparel Training & Design Centre(ATDC)’s B.Voc students have done spectacular garments in the 1st Edition of Times Bangalore Fashion Week focusing on ‘Karigari’ and the value addition techniques, now with 2nd Edition of ‘Times Delhi Fashion Week’ on 22nd Sept students have focused on “Women Empowerment through Skills in Fashion” and I am sure the garments on show will be appreciated by the women who join both professional cadres or in other workforce.”

Sri Rakesh Vaid

Sr. Vice Chairman, ATDC

“Apparel Training & Design Centre(ATDC)’s B.Voc convocating students are redesigning “Ethnic-Pret” in the 2nd edition of ‘Times Delhi Fashion Week’ theme focuses on “Women Empowerment through Fashion” and I wish ATDCians will raise the bar and create a new wave in affordable fashion.”

Dr. Darlie Koshy

DG & CEO, ATDC

“Apparel Training Design Centre(ATDC) with its presence in 200+ centre’s across India have successfully skilled about 300,000 candidates in the past decade and now ATDC work in 24 states with various skill missions. Now with 1st batch of B.Voc convocating students, showcasing “Woman empowerment through skills in fashion” will highly focus on fashion for India’s youth who are about 400+ million millennials and can therefore fix even influent global fashion trends.”
