The candidates were also distributed 2 Tshirts each.

PROJECT BASED VISIT

As part of the Partial fulfillment of B.Voc FDR Sem 1 curriculum, a craft visit was organized from ATDC Kannur, for the students of 1st semester B.Voc FDR – REC and direct batches.

The one day visit was organized to SARGALAYA – ARTS AND CRAFTS VILLAGE located at Vadakara, Kozhikode district on 10.10.2023.

The craft village is located approximately 88 km from ATDC Kannur.

- We started by 9:00 am , and reached the venue by 11:30 am on 10th Oct 2023.
- The students were given a brief about the craft village, its importance in preserving the traditional craft heritage and assigned individual topics group wise for report preparation.
- The visit was completed along with students visiting each stall, where the artisans explained the students about each craft, where students clicked pictures and noted down the details.
- We spent around 4 hours understanding about 27 craft varieties.
- Lunch was arranged in the Sargalaya canteen in between the visit for all students.

TIE and DYE WORKSHOP

A tie and dye workshop was conducted for the B.Voc Batch 8 Sem 1 students, where the students were introduced to tie and dye technique. They were also given a demonstration of batik print and screen-printing techniques.

The students were provided with all equipment and dye stuff and they got a real time experience in exploring various patterns using the tie and dye method.

FASHION SHOW – Nov 3, 2023

ATDC Kannur BVOC Sem 1 students participated in NIFT YUGAM an annual inter collegiate event hosted by NIFT Kannur at the same campus. The students presented a collection of 11 garments for the show. This was a first time experience for the students and it helped them to get a sneak peak into the fashion world and has helped them prepare for the upcoming events as well.

FASHION SHOW – HAPPINESS FESTIVAL

ATDC Kannur was fortunate enough to get a chance to present a fashion show at the HAPPINESS FESTIVAL, Taliparamba – a week long New Year celebration conducted by the Municipality of Taliparamba in a very grand manner. The festival was closed by the honourable Chief Minister of Kerala.

The committee approached us for presenting a Fashion show, and ATDC KANNUR presented a collection of 19 garments on the 28th of December, 2023 for HAPPINESS FESTIVAL 2023. We had about 3000 viewers as audience, the show was well received and was lauded by the committee.

The collection was made using traditional Kerala kasavu fabric blended with brocades of peacock hues, giving a fresh twist to the conventional designs.

The show was conducted by Batch 8- B.Voc FDR Sem 1 students.

Other Occasions – ONAM CELEBRATION

The harvest festival of Kerala – Onam was observed and celebrated on 26th August, 2023. The students dressed up in traditional attire, conducted cultural programs, prepared a flower carpet. A grand feast of Onam Sadya was also served on the same day, in association with KINFRA, where our centre is situated.

The last working day for Sem 1 was Dec 30th, 2023.

The students will appear for the Sem1 Examinations from 06th January, 2023 onwards.

The classes have been completed on time by the faculty and also made sure that the students completed the practical files and records before the exams.
