Documents Required at Admission

Admission is based on written test / interview / portfolio review, as applicable, and submission of required documents.
• 10+2 mark sheet as proof of minimum eligibility
• Class 10 mark sheet as proof of date of birth
• Proof of payment towards programme fee through online mode

Cancellation of Admission

As stated in the July 2026 calendar: admission stands cancelled if a candidate does not report to the ATDC Vocational Institute within 10 days of class commencement; fee will not be refunded in that case. Subject to policy confirmation for this session.

Withdrawal and Refund

A candidate who withdraws after admission will not be considered for subsequent seat-allocation rounds, as stated in the July 2026 calendar.
Before commencement of the academic session, withdrawal requests may be submitted through the online portal.
After commencement, refund requests may be submitted in the prescribed format to the Director Academic, with the original admission receipt. Requests without the original receipt will not be entertained, per the July 2026 calendar.

Important Note

ATDC reserves the right to revise admission criteria and schedules. Dates marked ‘to be notified’ and policies carried forward from July 2026 require confirmation by the Admissions/Academic team before website publication.
